Study Guide

Pray: Pray that God will show you something new in His Word and that you will be fully present as you consider these questions.

Read: Begin by reading Luke 10 straight through, as you would the first chapters of any book.

Discussion Questions:

1. Where does Jesus get His laborers and how did He instruct them? (verses 2-11)
2. What do you find significant about Jesus' instructions to the laborers?
3. a.) Personal reflection; sharing optional. In what ways do you experience rejection or disapproval because of your relationship with Jesus Christ? What are some of the hardest parts of this to deal with?

b) In verse 16, what does Jesus say to those who belong to Him and seek to do His will?
4. When the 72 returned, what did they report about their results? (verse 17)
5. Jesus reminded the 72 disciples that they had a greater motivation for rejoicing. What did he want them to base their joy on? (verses 18-20)

6. We all have things that get us excited. But are they the same things that Jesus excited? What kind of kingdom celebrations should really cause us to leap with joy?

7. What did the expert in the law ask? How did Jesus answer Him? (verses 25-28)

8. What point do you think is being made in the parable of the Good Samaritan? (verses 25-37)

9. a) Compare Mary and Martha's actions towards Jesus in verses 38-42?

- b) What would become of Marys if not for Marthas? And to Marthas if not for Marys?

10. Personal reflection; sharing optional. Are there any preoccupations or distractions standing between you and a more consistent experience of living by God's best priorities, not merely settling for good ones?
